OUR PRINCIPAL

Dear Graduates:

It is with much delight that I compliment you for achieving your most treasured goal -- graduation. Let us hope that you have thoroughly received the knowledge, understandings, skills and appreciations for effective personal and social living in a free world.

When you leave your Alma Mater, you will enter a world fraught with great social changes, new civic responsibilities, challenging economic competition and a great quest for things spiritual. Your educational experiences in and out of the classroom will determine your social adjustments and useful contributions to society. You will find that education is a refuge in adversity. You will discover that education makes the man. May God help you achieve the good things in life for you and your fellow man.

C. N. Bennet, Principal

SENIOR'S CREED

We believe in God whose goodness and mercy endureth forever.

We believe in our parents who have sacrificed many comforts in order that we may obtain this goal -- graduation.

We believe in our principal and teachers who have helped to make our bodies as well as our minds strong.

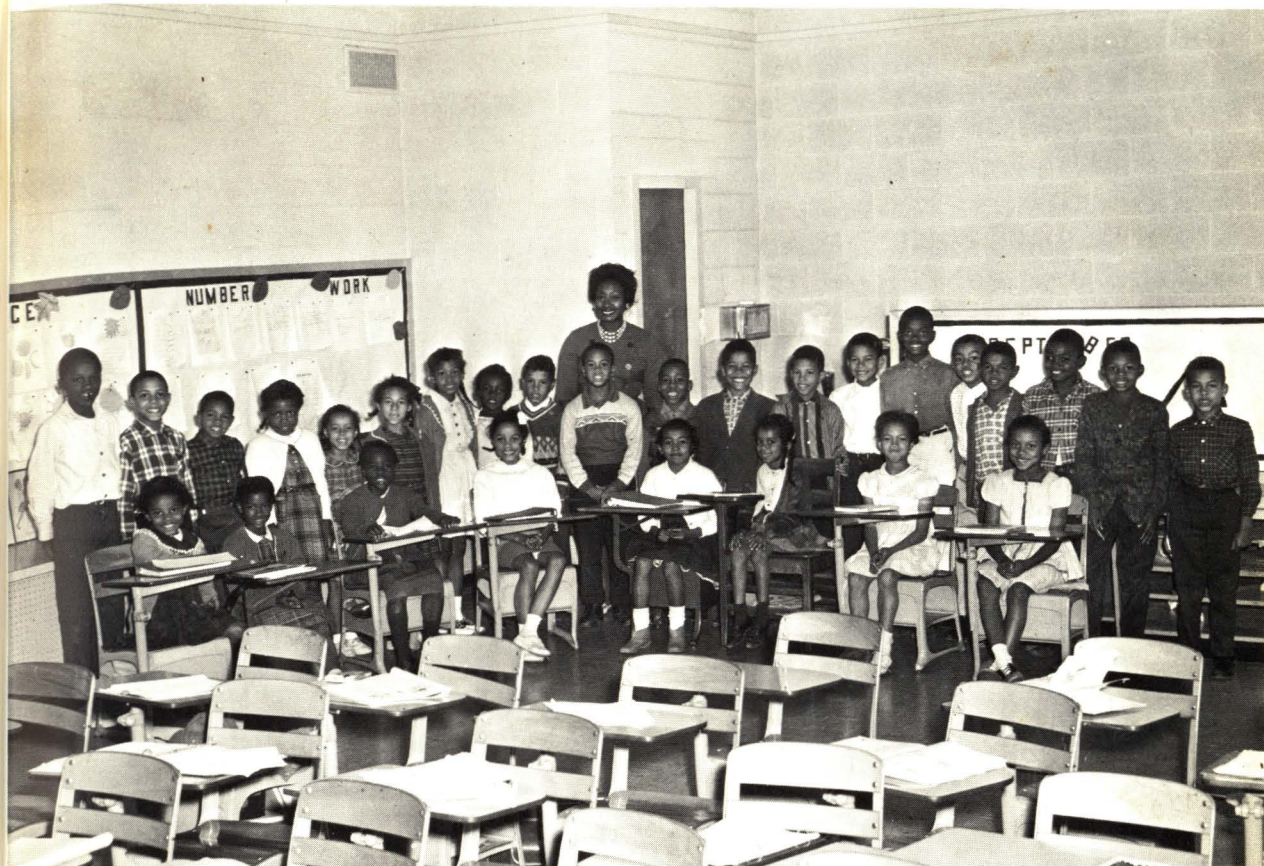

We believe that we must be physically clean and morally pure.

We believe that we must be helpful and unselfish. We must use our strength to help others who need help.

We believe in truth and honesty. We must know what is true in order to do that which is right. We must be honest in all our dealings and in all our thoughts.

We believe that we must be brave enough and strong enough to control what we think, say and do.

CLASS HISTORY

The most exciting day of our lives was September 8, 1959. We were finally eighth graders or Greenies as we were called. We had been waiting of seven years to become high school students. It was our first year in the new Jennie Dean High and Elementary School. There were 44 members of our class. Our homeroom teacher was Mrs. Sylvia Stone White. The president of our class was Jean Lewis and the Secretary was Mary Ann Ross. That year Helen Sprow, also a member of our class, was crowned Miss Homecoming.

On September 3, 1960, we returned to school as ninth graders or Freshmen. We lost a few students but the class was still in full swing. Mrs. White was still our sponsor. Sheila Cheek was crowned as Miss Homecoming that year. Barbara Harris was president and our Secretary was Doris Washington.

Our Sophomore year was another successful year. Our sponsor was again Mrs. White. WE had a membership of 23. We were proud that we had become sophomores at last. Lillie Saunders became our Miss Homecoming Queen, which gave us the third consecutive year of triumph. Our class officers were Doris Washington as president, and our Secretary was Larry Barfield.

In September, 1962, we were Juniors. Everyone was back with wide smiles. We were sponsoring the Junior-Senior Prom, the most exciting event of our school year. That year we had a new sponsor, Miss Elizabeth Redd. The class officers were President -- Idell Fortune, Secretary -- Helen Sprow, and Treasurer -- Larry Barfield.

Finally the long awaited year of 1963-64 has arrived. We are in our last year of high school. This year brings mixed emotions -- joy because we have made another milestone in our educational achievements, sadness because of our day of departure.

Now that we are leaving, we would like to thank all of our teachers and friends for five of the happiest years of our lives.

CLASS PROPHECY

Washington, D.C.
May 29, 1976

Dear Barfield,

Last week one of our past classmates, James Jackson, came into my barbershop. Knowing Jackson as you do, you probably guessed that he supplied me with all his knowledge concerning the members of our graduating class, and knowing me as you do, you know I had to write and tell you about it.

James informed me of the following:

Carl Lansdowne now has a chain of barbershops. Samuel Moore is founder of the Moore's Home for the Aged. Philip Cole is appearing in a Broadway play. James Harris has become a Las Vegas night club singer. Thomas Coleman is a pro football player. Richard Henderson has a degree called "Deploma." James Jackson is an electronic engineer. Robert Washing has won fame for discovering a remedy for sleeping diseases. Robert Newman has married his high school sweetheart and is an I.B.M. expert. Tony Robinson is head of a construction company. Albert Thomas is a choir director at St. Paul's College. Roger West is a captain in the Air Force. Alton Bates is now a commercial artist. Sheila Cheek is an Exchange Teacher in Germany. Idell Fortune is head librarian at the largest library in the world. Barbara Harris is a nurse at Prince William County Hospital. Jean Lewis has a large Mortician's establishment. Lillie Saunders has married her 5th husband. Helen Sprow is now a famed model. Alberta Stewart has replaced a noted comedian (MOM'S). Doris Washington is a social worker in Calif. Incidentally; I heard you were the coach of "The Harlem Glob Trotters."

Well, until I see you again, good luck and best wishes.

Sincerely yours,
Edward Braxton

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of 1964, in the town of Manassas, the county of Prince William, and the state of Virginia, being in as good mental condition as usual, and in much better temper than usual, do hereby make this, our last will and testament, rendering void and of no avail any former will or wills that may have been previously made by us during a period of temporary optimism.

We have no specific directions to leave concerning our funeral but we do hope you will come prepared to praise as well as bury us, forgetting the trifling faults that may have been ours and remembering only our manifold and remarkable virtues.

Article I -- To the Principal we give and bequeath a sense of relief that we have at last been graduated, pleasant memories of our four years together, and a felling of pride in any great deeds or noteworthy achievements that our future may contain, realizing that such glories -- will owe much to his example and counsel.

Article II -- To the Teachers we give and bequeath our very kindest regards and our sincere gratitude for their unfailing kindness and aid.

Article III -- To the Junior class we give reluctantly but of necessity our mantle of dignity. We realize that the class can never fill it but, since it is expected of them, our advice is, "Grin and wear it."

Philip Cole wills to you the Students of Jennie Dean his unconquerable school spirit.

Samuel Moore wills his senior books and trying ability to Leon Anderson.

Tony Robinson wills his capability to be sweet to all the girls to Jack Bates.

James Harris wills his name, Cassanova, to his little brother, Douglas who hates girls.

Idell Fortune wills her seat in Typing I to her sister, Maxine.

Jean Lewis wills her cheerleaders' suit to anyone who can wear it.

Edward Braxton wills his ability in barbering to Charles Robinson.

Helen Sprow wills her ability to use the Electric Typewriter to her brother, Marshall and a very, very close friend, Marvin Fields.

Lillie Saunders wills her ability to stay out of the office to Charlyne Braxton.

Barbara Harris wills her Homemaking ability to Ann Allen.

To James Johnson, Larry Pierre Barfield leaves his ability to play center in basketball and his way with the girls to Wilton Williams.

Alton Bates wills a prayer to a certain 10th grade girl that she may always be happy.

Carl Lansdowne wills his ability to play sports to Udon Cheek.

Roger West wills his ability in industrial arts and sports to his brothers, Jackie, James and William.

Richard Henderson wills his ability to stay in school to Earnest Harris.

Tommy Coleman wills his ability to play sports, especially his fullback position to his brother, Eddie.

Robert Washington wills his ability to get what he wants without really trying to Udon Cheek.

Alberta Stewart wills her ability to get along with others to her underclassmen and her secret admirers.

James Jackson wills his football uniform to Syris Givens.

Albert Thomas wills his friendly attitude to all who enter Jennie Dean.

Shelia Cheek wills her ability to gain weight to her dear, cousin Marva.

I, Robert Newman will my football helmet and shoes, and the ability to play left tackle to Rodney Warren.

Received and recorded in the Town of Manassas, Virginia, this eleventh day of June 1964.

Testators: Doris Washington
Alberta Stewart

CLASS SONG

ADIEU, DEAR ALMA MATER

Adieu to you, dear Alma Mater
Where we leave our hearts
For 'twas here our schooldays started, and from here we'll part.

II

Adieu to dear old Alma Mater
Source of all our joys,
Raise the chorus all ye faithful
Give to her our love.

III

To you we sing dear Alma Mater
Friends and all our foe, and to
You dear friends and parents,
Love forevermore.

IV

Not tis time for us to leave you,
But with treasured thoughts
For we leave our school and classmates
And sadness fills our hearts.

REFRAIN

You have been our guiding light.
This light we adore, we shall Always sing thy praises.
Adieu to thee once more.
